

The reviews are in for The Lawyer's Guide to Fact Finding on the Internet

Second Edition
by Carole A. Levitt and Mark E. Rosch

“I had the opportunity to see [co-author Levitt] give a presentation on using the Internet and it was one of best presentations I had ever seen on the topic. Regardless of your level of use, you can learn something of great value. This is a book that all practitioners should have in their offices. It should be required reading for all staff regardless of their position in the firm.”

Pat Yevics, Director of the Maryland State Bar
Law Office Management Assistance in the Maryland Bar Bulletin

“Everyone talks about the Internet, but few really know how to quickly find information online. Carole Levitt and Mark Rosch know how and where to find things online.”

Jim Calloway
Director, Management Assistance Program
Oklahoma Bar Association

“The Lawyer's Guide to Fact Finding on the Internet sets a new standard in Internet legal research books. This book offers legal links and commentary on hundreds of excellent Web sites and offers useful tips it took me years to learn on my own. The CD alone is worth the price of this book; once you put it in and start clicking on links, you will be amazed at where they take you.”

Nicholas C. Zales, Esq.
member of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Board of Governors in Wisconsin Lawyer magazine

Nowhere else will you find the vast information resources specific to lawyers as you will in “The Lawyer's Guide to Fact Finding on the Internet.” Carole Levitt and Mark Rosch have brought years of Internet research to an easy-to-use guide for lawyers.”

Andrew Z. Adkins, III
Director, Legal Technology Institute
University of Florida Levin College of Law

“Internet research books abound, but this one provides a practical, thorough and organized approach to the precise needs of busy practitioners... a valuable addition to the lawyer's bookshelf.”

Ann Puckett, Director of the Law Library &
Professor of Law, University of Georgia

“Carole Levitt and Mark Rosch codify the very best resources for lawyer cybersleuthing and offer an insider's view of the tools, tricks and shortcuts to their use. This book will help you get the online information you need – better, faster and cheaper.”

Craig Ball, Texas Trial Lawyer &
Forensic Technologist

For information about seminars based on this book, contact Carole Levitt or Mark Rosch toll-free at 888/393-6181.